Direction: Explain your answers in your own words.

1. What is Pangangayaw?

Pangangayaw is like a old tradition practice by some tribe in Philippines. It means they go to raid or attack other village to get food, people or thing that is important to them. Sometimes they do it to protect they place or to take revenge to other tribe. It was also a way for them to become brave or earn respect from others. Pangangayaw was not just for fight, it have many meaning for them people before.

2. Give three (3) criteria for recognizing heroes and relate them to Dr. Jose Rizal's Life.

1) A hero is someone who sacrifice his self for the good of many people

Dr. Jose Rizal go back to the Philippines even he already know it's dangerous for him. He could stay safe in other country but he choose to come home and help his fellow Filipinos. Because of his writings, he was prison and later killed. He give his life for the country.

2) Contribution to the Nation's Freedom or Welfare

Rizal fight using pen not sword. He write novels and articles that show the bad things the Spaniards doing. Many Filipinos become awake because of his works and some like Bonifacio was inspire by him to fight. He help start the change in peaceful way.

3) . Moral Integrity and Leadership by Example

Dr. Jose Rizal is a man with strong principle. He study hard, respect others, and believe in peace and education. Even when he know he will die, he write "Mi Ultimo Adios" to say goodbye and to show love to the country. He died with bravery and honor.

3. Why were Gregorio del Pilar, Andrés Bonifacio, and Emilio Aguinaldo not qualified as heroes based on the criteria used by the Americans for selecting a hero?

Gregorio del Pilar, Andres Bonifacio, and Emilio Aguinaldo was not choosen as heroes by the Americans because they fight against them. They use revolution and war, while Americans like peaceful people like Rizal. Bonifacio and Aguinaldo lead armed fight, and Gregorio del Pilar died in battle with US soldier. Also, their ideas and way of leading not same with what Americans want. That's why they not make them official heroes.
